- No

Add Co-author Details

Please provide details for all co-authors. We use this information so we can offer tailored publishing options and a personalized article publishing charge for Gold open access when applicable.

Hints: Start the organization search using the main organisation name (e.g., University of Manchester) as this will return the most results from which to select the most appropriate option. If you’re unable to find the specific department, then selecting the main organization is sufficient. For more tips on searching for an organization please visit our Support Center.

Add another co-author
Author can add the Funder details. Funder can be the affiliated institute or a different one. In this case Milliman, United States is the Funder.
Based on the affiliation details, the author sees the Publishing Options. Gold OA option is followed by Subscription option and we make it clear that agreement covers full APC.

If the librarian at the institution rejects the author request in the Elsevier Portal, we also make it clear that the authors will receive a full price invoice.

Gold Open Access

As a corresponding author affiliated with a Polish institution, I have the opportunity to publish open access. I do not have to pay an Article Publishing Charge (APC). Upon validation, the agreement between Elsevier and Polish national program will cover the APC according to the rules of the Open Access pilot program in Poland.

I can share my article in accordance with the user license that I select. Please find further details on Elsevier's agreement page.

Select Gold Open Access

*If the validation is not successful, an invoice for the total APC of EUR 3,320.00 (excl. tax) will be sent directly to me.

Subscription

As a corresponding author affiliated with [name of the institution], I will publish my article under the subscription model, making my final published article immediately available to all subscribers.

Further details on Elsevier's agreement page explain how I can share my accepted manuscript.

License of Publishing Rights

I hereby grant to Elsevier Ltd an exclusive publishing and distribution license in the manuscript identified above and any tables, illustrations or other material submitted for publication as part of the manuscript (the "Article") in print, electronic and all other media (whether now known or later developed), in any form, in all languages, throughout the world, for the full term of copyright, and the right to license others to do the same, effective when the Article is accepted for publication. This license includes the right to enforce the rights granted hereunder against third parties.

Supplemental Materials

"Supplemental Materials" shall mean materials published as a supplemental part of the Article, including but not limited to graphical, illustrative, video and audio material.

With respect to any Supplemental Materials that I submit, Elsevier Ltd shall have a perpetual worldwide non-exclusive right and license to publish, extract, reformat, adapt, build upon, index, redistribute, link to and otherwise use all or any part of the Supplemental Materials, in all forms and media (whether now known or later developed) and permit others to do so. The publisher shall apply the same end user license to the Supplemental Materials as to the Article where it publishes the Supplemental Materials with the Article in the journal on its online platforms on an Open Access basis.

Research Data

"Research Data" shall mean the result of observations or experimentation that validate research findings and that are published separate to the Article, which can include but are not limited to raw data, processed data, software, algorithms, protocols, and methods.

With respect to any Research Data that I wish to make accessible on a site or through a service of Elsevier Ltd, Elsevier Ltd shall have a perpetual worldwide, non-exclusive right and license to publish, extract, reformat, adapt, build upon, index, redistribute, link to and otherwise use all or any part of the Research Data in all forms and media (whether now known or later developed), and to permit others to do so. Where I have selected a specific end user license under which the Research Data is to be made available on a site or through a service, the publisher shall apply that end user license to the Research Data on that site or service.

Author representations

- The Article I have submitted to the journal for review is original, has been written by the stated authors and has not been previously published.
- The Article was not submitted for review to another journal while under review by this journal and will not be submitted to any other journal.
- The Article and the Supplemental Materials do not infringe any copyright, violate any other intellectual property, privacy or other rights of any person or entity, or contain any libellous or other unlawful matter.
- I have obtained written permission from copyright owners for any excerpts from copyrighted works that are included and have credited the sources in the Article or the Supplemental Materials.
- Except as expressly set out in this License Agreement, the Article is not subject to any prior rights or licenses and, if my or any of my co-authors’ institution has a policy that might restrict my ability to grant the rights required by this License Agreement (taking into account the Scholarly communication rights permitted hereunder), a written waiver of that policy has been obtained.
- If I and/or any of my co-authors reside in Iran, Cuba, Sudan, Burma, Syria, or Crimea, the Article has been prepared in a personal, academic or research capacity and not as an official representative or otherwise on behalf of the relevant government or institution.
- If I am using any personal details or images of patients, research subjects or other individuals, I have obtained all consents required by applicable law and complied with the publisher’s policies relating to the use of such images or personal information. See https://www.elsevier.com/about/our-business/policies/patient-consent for further information.
- Any software contained in the Supplemental Materials is free from viruses, contaminants or worms.
- If the Article or any of the Supplemental Materials were prepared jointly with other authors, I have informed the co-author(s) of the terms of this License Agreement and that I am signing on their behalf as their agent, and I am authorized to do so.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

This License Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the country or state of Elsevier Ltd ("the Governing State"), without regard to conflict of law principles, and the parties irrevocably consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the Governing State.

For Information on the publisher’s copyright and access policies, please see https://www.elsevier.com/copyright.
